Team Clapsel

Section I: Self Discovery - An Introduction

Clapsel Self Discovery Map (SDM) is based on the 5S Framework. It combines the proprietary software algorithms and Artificial Intelligence (AI) with the timeless wisdom and the science of light (commonly known as Jyotish) to provide you a personalized, practical, and empowering tool for living your true potential.

5S Framework

The 5S Framework recognizes that all things in the universe, living and non-living, manifested and non-manifested, are vibrating. And therefore, everything represents a specific vibratory pattern. The SDM unveils the vibratory pattern of your life form and reveals how this pattern manifests across different dimensions of your life journey.

- Source - Know who the real you is and what is your intent
- Seed - Discover your mind and learn what all it constructs
- Soil - Find out how the universe brings what your mind constructs
- Season - Learn about the unfolding seasons of your life journey
- Sowing - Master simple practices bringing you more freedom and joy

The 5S Framework recognizes that You, as reality, as your true self, are the Awareness, referred to as the Source. As Awareness, you can give rise to a thought (which is a dream or a non-reality), with an intent to experience yourself. Your intent to experience yourself is inherited by everything that arises, exists for sometime and then dissolves as a dream within the real you, within the one reality - the world consisting of thoughts, or the mind, and of material things, the universe.

So when you give rise to a thought, (which is one pattern of you, the Awareness), that pattern seeks to experience itself. But how does this pattern accomplish that? It does that through a matching vibrating pattern in the universe. In fact, as you continue to create vibrating patterns through thinking, this collection of vibratory patterns, referred to as the Seed, gets to experience itself through a life form that encapsulates a matching vibratory pattern in the universe.

The 5S Framework confirms that, in your life journey, you are experiencing a specific vibratory pattern, referred to as the Soil. And this Soil of your life form unfolds itself through definite time periods in your life journey, referred to to as the Seasons. We can learn about this pattern or the Soil that has been unfolding across Seasons through your life form since its birth.

A life form is declared born when a body acquires its own breath. Therefore, in order to learn about the vibratory pattern or the Soil that a life form encapsulates, we plot and study the spatial arrangement of the nearby celestial bodies and the constellations across which they travel or appear to travel at the place-time of birth of the life form. Simply put, the pattern at the time and place when a form takes its first breath (acquires life) to become a life form reveals the pattern of the Seed that is seeking to experience itself.

Let's use an example to elaborate. Say you want to experience your smiling face. All you need is a mirror. You simply construct a smiling face in front of a mirror. The mirror obediently reflects your smiling face to you, enabling you to experience the smiling face. Similarly, your life-form of this manifested Universe is like a mirror that enables you to experience the vibratory pattern or Seed you constructed in the past by thinking all kinds of thoughts. The vibratory pattern or Soil we are looking at is like a reflection of your smiling face in this example.

What Exactly You Learn From SDM

From the Self Discovery Map, you will learn how the vibratory resources (the Soil) of your life form manifest across four different planes of your existence. You will also discover how these resources unfold through well-defined time periods (the Seasons) of your life journey.

Among other things, Clapself SDM enables you to objectively validate whatever you may already know about yourself. It helps you identify or validate your innate needs, key motivations, dominant passions, primary tendencies, etc. The Map also entails the key contemporary vocational paths that are in alignment with the resources of your Soil. And, it reveals the key character and prominent themes of the specific time periods of your life-journey.

The purpose of this Self Discovery Map, therefore, is to empower you with the insightful information about your own life journey so that you can:

Section II: Self Discovery Map

1. SOIL

This section entails how the resources of the Soil manifest across the four key planes of your existence. In this life journey, your mind has been experiencing as well as using these Soil resources so let's learn about them.

Key-Themes of Soil
Ambition	Sensitivity	Practical
Determination	Career	Nourishment
Health

1.1. SELF-PLANE

The Soil resources on this plane determine what motivates you deep down and gives you a sense of self.

Imagine an onion. It has multiple layers. After you have peeled each layer, you eventually get to see the core of the onion. Similarly, the self-plane is the core layer of your existence. The vibratory resources of the Soil manifesting on this plane reveal what gives your mind a sense of self, an identity, a deeper motivation.

As this plane represents your innermost self, you don't directly present this self to the world. It's hidden from others. Only you know about this self through your key motivations, core passions, and innate urges. On this plane, the resources of your Soil offer you:

Self-Plane
Motivation to connect to the real self without leaving the 'unreal' self	Urge to bring compassionate and insightful approach in life
Driven by strong insight	Zeal for creativity and imagination
Drive for providing nourishment and shelter to others	Motivation for philosophy and charity

You derive sense of self:

- From communication and mental achievements
- By seeking continuous growth through learning

You are passionate about:

- Service, with emphasis on health, conflicts, military, litigation, etc.

1.2. MENTAL-PLANE

The Soil resources on this plane determine how your mind interprets and feels about everything it experiences through your life-form.

This plane represents that aspect of your mind which governs emotions, thoughts, and attitudes. The vibratory resources of the Soil available to the mental-plane therefore play a key role in determining how you process all that you experience. The manifestation of the Soil on the mental-plane, like that on the self- plane, is not directly evident to others.

On this plane of your life-form, the resources of your Soil offer you:

Mental-Plane
Feeling of happiness by improving the surrounding circumstances	Need to provide service to others
Fulfillment by being organized and keeping healthy	Tendency to be overly critical about self and others
Urge to excessively worry about things	Overly cautious approach towards health
Inherent inclination to pursue some kind of handwork

You gain emotional balance:

- By seeking a strong connection with rituals and beliefs
- By exploring new things and places

1.3. PHYSICAL-PLANE

The Soil resources on this plane determine how your life form operates in conjunction with continuously evolving genes and the dynamic external environment.

As the name suggests, this plane represents the physical aspect of your existence. The manifestation of the Soil on this plane is evident to others albeit not entirely. The vibratory resources available to this plane determine your physical attributes such as body structure, height, countenance, etc.

On this plane, the resources of your Soil, in conjunction with the genes bring you:

Physical-Plane

Physical-Plane
Generally slender build	Thin and long neck
A chin that tends to be smallish, rounding off the face	Sensitive skin, often with rashes, outbreaks or easy bruising
Eyes generally stick out, are often serious looking	Restrained voice, often subdued and thoughtful

1.4. PRESENTATION-PLANE

The Soil resources on this plane determine what you project into the world and how you interact and conduct business with others.

This plane represents all that you project to the world. It's like your user interface (UI), or the screen of your computer. In conjunction with the physical-plane, this plane plays an important role in your day to day interaction with others. Most people perceive you through these two somewhat visible planes (physical and presentation).

The resources available to the presentation-plane essentially determine how you express your gifts and talents (what role you like to play), and also how you experience things in the material world.

On this plane, the Soil resources provide you:

Presentation-Plane
Provide serious, thoughtful, and organized approach towards interacting with the world	Abundant resources for expressing itself through taking responsibility
Bring formal or reserved attitude with ambitious but generally down-to-earth approach	Provide maturity, wisdom and responsibility
Bring restrain in demonstrating feelings	Provide realistic approach and ability adapt to different circumstances
Support strong career or business orientation	Bring strong attachment and dedication towards family members
Provide strong need for career success and financial security	Honesty, kind, service

1.5. SOIL RESOURCES

This section of the Map outlines the Soil resources that are available for you to express your gifts and talents in the world and serve others.

Let's first set the perspective. For about 90% of our history, we humans were hunters! Only as recently as about 10,000 years ago, humans became agriculturists. And since then, we have been inventing numerous vocations in pursuit of serving fellow human beings by expressing their gifts and talents, and thereby earning economic, social and other benefits.

The Soil resources available across all the four key planes discussed earlier play a role in determining how we express ourselves and the kind of services we like to provide to others. However, the Soil resources on the presentation-plane play a vital role in determining which different lines of contemporary vocation are best suited to express those resources.

Because most of the vocations generally require our interaction with the world, directly or indirectly, and the Soil resources on the presentation-plane primarily govern that interaction.

For vocational pursuit, the resources of your Soil provide you:

Vocation Resources
Worldly ambitious, career focussed, and thoroughly practical	Very grounded, serious, take well-thought out approach to things
Excellent organizational skills	Hard working with strong work ethic, self reliant and independent
Conservative, avoid adventures, only takes calculated risk	Determined and purpose driven
Very comfortable with positions of authority and leadership	Talk less, do more is your motto

Vocation Choices
Leadership (general management, executive leadership, business management, etc.)	Information technology (computer programming, software, consulting, management, etc.)
Organizational service (accounting, financial planning, estate planning, etc.)	Land and real estate (development, management, leadership, geology, minerals, etc.)
Agriculture (farming, forest, horticulture, etc.)

As you discover these career paths and roles that are in alignment with your Soil resources, it is important to keep in mind that how you use these resources is also determined by different Seasons of your life journey that bring different themes over a period of time. You will learn more about these themes of Seasons in the next section.

2. SEASONS

This section of your personalized Self-Discovery Map reveals the character and the key themes of the definitive time periods or the Seasons you experience in your life journey.

The Soil resources you learned in the above section revealed the various resources available to you on key planes of your existence. The seasons tell the broad character and key themes of a specific time period of your journey. Seasons are the definite rhythms offered by the universe to each life journey through the wheel of time.

Each Season, though having the same character and themes for all human life journeys, has a unique meaning and therefore presents a very personalized experience for each individual based on the Soil.

It's like, the rainy season invariably brings water to all as that is the character of the rainy season. We get wet if we are in the open without any umbrella or raincoat! However, the rainy season holds a unique personalized meaning for a farmer, for a builder and for an outdoor sports player. And keep in mind, there are no good or bad Seasons. Based on their distinct character Seasons provide opportunities and conditions that are suitable for certain pursuits.

This section of the Map outlines the timelines of each Season you have been experiencing in your life journey. You are going to learn about the character and key themes of each of those Seasons.

The impulses of this Season may make your mind feel as if your life journey progress is being delayed or even halted. But that is not the purpose of this Season.
